1. DCM and Poloff provided the White House statement to and discussed the points in reftels with Permanent Secretary Missouri Sherman-Peter at the Bahamian Foreign Ministry. Ms. Sherman-Peter had no substantive reaction other than to say the Bahamian government was following the situation closely. She also said that Minister Bostwick would not be able to attend the OAS Special General Assembly on April 18 because of impending general elections here (May 2), in which the Minister is defending her seat in the House of Assembly.
